

DARE to be Different

INNOVATIONS IN

FACE

Tasmania

Explore the possibilities

Adult and Community Education Conference

Wednesday 15 November 2006
University of Tasmania, Launceston
9.30 am – 4.30 pm

With a focus on innovation, this year's conference is set to be an exciting exchange of information and inspiration for everyone involved in ACE in Tasmania, including staff and volunteers: tutors, trainers, teachers, coaches, mentors, leaders, coordinators, administrators, policy makers and academics.

Speakers from

University of Tasmania
University of Ballarat
WA Department of Education and Training
Department of Education
Huon LINC
Relationships Australia
Glenorchy Online Access Centre
Tasmanian Association of Community Houses
Ulverstone Community House
Third Age Learning Network of Tasmania
Penguin Club of Australia, Tasmania
Adult Education Tasmania
State Library of Tasmania
TAFE Tasmania

Speaking on

The social and economic values of ACE
Opportunities and issues in older people's learning
Engaging whole communities
Adult and family literacy
Public information resources and services
Government ACE policies and strategies
Measuring the ACE effort in Tasmania
Technologies and techniques to support adult learning
...and just what does go on inside men's sheds...

An action-packed day of interactive learning, networking and socialising in a high quality meeting facility – all for the low registration fee of $66 ($33 concession) that includes lunch and morning and afternoon tea.

Bus transport from Hobart and Burnie will be organised if sufficient demand is indicated early.

Registrations close Wednesday 8 November.

Registration information and forms, and program updates: www.education.tas.gov.au/ace/conference

Enquiries to the Department of Education

Registrations ph. 03) 6233 7855, email kathie.imlach@education.tas.gov.au

General ph. 03) 6233 7091, email ace.conference@education.tas.gov.au